DEDICATION

Inspiration and friendship lingers on after parting and covers time and distance. A real friend is a precious person in this world of transitis. A friend is one who goes the extra mile without being asked. A friend understands and sympathizes while maintaining the uplifting spirits.

We have an individual that meets these demands in every step of the way and then some. Not only is he an excellent teacher, but also a good counselor, and above all a glowing Christian.

That is why, with our deepest gratitude and admiration for being the type of person we look up too,

We dedicate the

Reflector

of 1966

to

Robert E. Hamilton

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

CONGRATULATIONS! Each has made progress, some have made more than others. One author states, "Many who are qualified to do excellent work accomplish little because they attempt little." With automation here as a reality; many who will not venture to attempt much will become a mere machine to be run by some other's mind. With renewed determination let us use the God given ability to think and to act as the individual the creator has made. Do not be satisfied to be another person's shadow. "Stand in your God-given personality." Do not stop until you finish the course layed out for out in this earth and make a full preparation for the world to come.

Aim Heights Beyond

Motto No Sunset But Dawn

It's Up to You

It isn't a question of what you've done
But what you intend to do,
For records past can't always last
And they'll not carry you through.

You may have won attention
That has travelled far and wide;
But unless you try for a goal more high You'll be on the losing side.

For the race of life is keen today,
Competition reigns supreme.
We must be at our best to meet the test;
It's a case of going up stream.

Don't stop when you reach a certain point;
There are greater things to be done.
Unless you surpass, the rest will outclass
The work you've only begun.

Resolve and try to improve yourself,
Replace old laurels with new.
It isn't a question of what you've done,
But what you intend to do.

Time is an earthly commodity. Its value has no limits and yet no resource receives such wasteful treatment. Used wisely, it can be a tool to give direction to life. Frittered away, it makes the user a slave. Proper use of time is a preparation for the place where it shall cease to exist.

It's been a lot of fun having you in the same room this year. Remember all the fun we had the night of the concert when you chaperoned me and Johnny. Don't flip for too many broads. Good luck in the future Love Penny

Debbie,
